2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

St. Mary's NS is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland ethos under the patronage of the Bishop of Cork, Cloyne and Ross.

"Church of Ireland" ethos in the context of a Church of Ireland primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Anglican Christian tradition. This seeks to nurture and encourage the formation of the intellectual, academic, sporting, social and religious abilities of each child within the framework of the community of faith. A Church of Ireland ethos encourages intellectual diversity of thought and encourages the individual to seek to understand themselves, the world around them and the connection between the world and God. This understanding of school ethos promotes pluralism in thought and living, in the context of a Christian school community. Drawing on its Anglican tradition, the Church of Ireland School encourages home/family involvement, highlighting the importance of the family/home in the social and emotional development of the child, and more broadly, the community of the school and church.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of St. Mary's NS shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

The Church of Ireland is an ecumenical church and fulfils its ministry in a spirit of inclusiveness and openness to the needs and concerns of all in society. Traditionally, the school has welcomed pupils from the wider community along with those from the Carrigaline Union of Parishes. St. Mary's N.S. is a school which, in accordance with the Education (Admissions to Schools) Act 2018, serves mainly those of a 'minority religion'.

The School motto, Mol an Óige agus tiocfaidh sí - Praise the youth and they will flourish, is a core philosophy for the school. St. Mary's N.S. is a community where pupils experience a sense of caring and belonging in a positive nurturing atmosphere where respect for each other is of paramount importance. We strive to foster the true potential of each child through the nurture of their spiritual, religious, emotional, intellectual and physical development.

The school endeavours to complement the work of parents / guardians in the home and build on this relationship to enable the child to grow and develop to achieve their full potential in society.
